

Athletics

New Mexico Junior College's Intercollegiate Athletic program is rich in tradition and program success. NMJC is a member of the Western Junior College Athletic Conference (WJCAC). The NMJC Rodeo Program competes under the auspices of the Southwest Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association (NNIRO). Sports offered for men are baseball, basketball, golf, track, cross country and rodeo. Sports offered for women are basketball, track, cross country, rodeo and volleyball.

The Athletic Program at NMJC has produced individual and team conference, regional, and national champions throughout its rich history. Scholarships are available. Students endeavoring to become a part of a particular program are encouraged to contact the respective coach to discuss potential participation in the Intercollegiate Athletic Program at <https://nmjcthunderbirds.com/landing/index> or 575.492.2740.