

CS103 : Introduction to CIS

This course provides an introduction to Computer Information Systems. Topics include the history of computers, current computer technology and terminology, the Internet, software, systems, and societal issues related to computer use.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

BCIS1110: Fund of Info Literacy & Syst